

Think Tank

What challenges is this young person facing at the minute?

What can this young person do to support themselves?

Is there anything that the school can do to support this young person?

Why is it important that this young person asks for help?

What might this young person say to themselves 5 years from now?

